

Profile for flow arts performance service

Our team's expertise lies in flow manipulation and hosting festivals as well as private events. We know what's involved and make it our mission to add value to your production!

Our channels of communication are open; our service delivery: hands on and safety conscious.

We thrive on turning your imagination into reality, creating a fully customizable and unique experience with every show. Our artists are well-versed in a range of LED and fire props, so varied performances are tailored to suit your needs.

Hire us for your next corporate function, birthday party, wedding, market or music festival!
